thank You All for participation and for your parish support.

THANK YOU ALL FOR HELP AND PARTICIPATION IN PIG ROAST .

It was great to see everyone relaxed and taking time to meet with friends and other parishioners and guests with whom we meet in the Church and than on the steps of the Church exiting on Sunday. It was good to spent some time together in family like setting. The food was great the deserts were amazing the company was illustrious. I had fun and I hope You did as well. May God bless us, Our Parish of Our Lady of Ostrabrama and God Bless America!Fr.Stan

Our parish school, Our Lady of Mercy has a new principal!

Alexandra Conlan of Riverhead, before coming to Our Lady of Mercy, Ms. Conlan worked as an art and Spanish teacher at St. Isidore's school in Riverhead for more than 13 years. Over the course of her career, she's also worked at other parochial schools across Long Island. Ms. Conlan is married and has five children between the ages of 16 and 29. She grew up in Elmhurst, Queens, and graduated from Manhasset High School. She later earned a Master's of Science and Education in administration at Fordham University and a Bachelor of Fine Arts in art education.

Call today if you'd like to meet Ms. Conlan or schedule a visit 734-5166

SEEK THE LORD

In today's opening reading, Isaiah urges us to "seek the LORD" who is "near" and can be "found" (Is 55:6). Then Isaiah says God's ways are as high above our ways "as the heavens are above the earth" (Is 55:9). So we search, not because God is hiding, but because our tendencies are so different from God's ways that we get lost. How are God's ways so high above our ways? The example Isaiah gives is that God's way is to be "generous in forgiving" (Is 55:7). And our way? We try to be "fair." You hurt me, so then I hurt you back, just as hard. Then, of course, you . . . And on it goes. In today's Gospel Jesus teaches that God is not "fair" like that. Instead, God is so generous we can hardly understand it. The same wage for one hour as for a whole day of work? Not fair! "Seek the Lord," and we might find a God who calls us to be, not fair, but generous beyond expectations.

Rectory and we will make an arrangement for the Eucharistic Minister to bring it to them at the convenient time. It would be good if they are visited by a priest to receive the Sacrament of the Sick.

Gluten Free Hosts are available in our church. Request for it must be made before Mass so it will be consecrated for use at coming Mass.

To register in the parish, and to receive parish support envelopes please take out the registration form in the main entrance and drop it in the collection basket. Thank You for supporting Your Parish!

Today we collect our pledges for our Church Renovations Project. Please put your pledges in the collection basket. Thank You! God Bless You!!!

We thank the ladies for taking care of the altar
