ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Blessing of animals

Prayer for our Servicemen and Women.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving Hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.

Our sick and homebound. If you know of somebody who would like to receive Holy Communion weekly, please notify the Rectory and we will make an arrangement for the Eucharistic Minister to bring it to them at the convenient time. It would be good if they are visited by a priest to receive the Sacrament of the Sick.

Gluten Free Hosts are available in our church. Request for it must be made before Mass so it will be consecrated for use at coming Mass.

To register in the parish, and to receive parish support envelopes please take out the registration form in the main entrance and drop it in the collection basket.

Thank You for supporting Your Parish!

NECESSARY REPETITION. Spiritual teachers tend to repeat themselves, and to repeat other teachers. Maybe there really aren't that many different truths to tell. Just a lot of slow, sleepy human beings—like us—who need to hear the basics over and over. Consider today's readings. People complain that God isn't "fair," and Ezekiel answers that God is more than fair. People choose their own fates, and people can change. Even evildoers can turn, do right, and live. "Actions speak louder than words." A fresh new insight? Hardly. Paul tells the Philippians he would truly be encouraged if those who claimed to be believers would, in fact, look to others' interests and not their own. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." A novel idea? I don't think so. In Jesus' story of the farmer and his sons, everyone knows the one who said he wouldn't work—but did—is way ahead of the one who said he would work, but didn't. "Talk is cheap." Heard that before?

PRAYER OF SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;

Where there is hatred, let me sow charity;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is error, the truth;

Where there is doubt, the faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

and where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;

To be understood as to understand;

To be loved as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive;

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

And it is in dying to ourselves that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Cisza: pokarm duchowego organizmu

Trwamy w otrzymanej dzięki zbawieniu łasce, gdy świadomie i w sposób wolny przebywamy w uświęcającej obecności Boga, gdy odcinamy drogi ucieczki od obecności. Tymi drogami ucieczki stają się często słowa. Ojcowie Pustyni wskazywali, że choroba całego człowieka objawia się jako choroba ludzkiego słowa. Aby na nowo przyjąć Słowo Boga (ale też słowo ludzkie), mnisi milczeli (M. Schneider SJ). Bóg jest tym, który się wciąż daje, ale można się zamknąć na dawanie, popełniając grzech. Zamknąć na Boże dawanie się mogą także nasze słowa, źródła wielu grzechów (por. list św. Jakuba 3, 1-12). Często używamy ich, by zagłuszać własne serce, głos Boga i potrzeby bliźnich. Słów używamy, by interpretować po swojemu Pismo św., rytualizować modlitwę, fałszować rzeczywistość oraz racjonalizować nasze zachowania, tzn. pokrętnie tłumaczyć naszą głupotę, słabość, lenistwo, lekceważenie i ignorancję. Zachowanie ciszy i milczenia może być wyrazem naszej miłości do Boga. Nie ma autentycznej relacji z Bogiem i modlitwy bez ciszy i milczenia. Są one także sposobem okazywania miłości do siebie samego,(c d n)
