ADVENT

“Watch!” This word occurs three times in today’s Gospel passage. Moreover, it is placed at significant points: the beginning, the center, and the end. Though this is technically a parable, it is quite short (four verses). The threefold repetition of “watch” leaves no doubt as to what the story is about. We often think of Advent as a time of waiting, but it truly is a season of watchfulness, a very active form of waiting for the coming Day of the Lord. It is that day, more than Christmas day, that the Christian community faithfully expects, using all of our gifts and talents for this purpose, as Paul reminds us in the Letter to the Corinthians. When we use these gifts in faithful watching and expectation, we become like the servants of the parable, set to their tasks, not waiting around idly, but engaged in the master’s work until his return. May our Advent be a time when we return or rededicate our lives to this work—the active and diligent faithfulness that the Lord will expect to find.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Each of the seven sacraments, like other aspects of the Church's pastoral plan, is an attempt to be faithful to the image of Christ we discover in the Gospels. Anointing of the sick is rooted in Jesus' saving deeds of healing and even rescue from death. What is your favorite encounter of Jesus with a sick person? Often, it seems that Jesus would go at once to the person in a crowd who was in the most pain, in the deepest need. A man born blind, Peter's mother-in-law, a woman afflicted by years of uncontrollable hemorrhages, a little Roman girl beloved by her soldier father, a crippled man lowered from the rafters, and even a man who lost his ear to a swinging sword in the garden of agony. This list reads like an admissions chart in an emergency room, and perhaps that is the point. The whole human experience from childhood to old age, from sudden catastrophic illness to chronic debilitating conditions, is represented by those for whom Jesus has such great compassion. This we can name a treasure of tradition with a capital "T." We are a people of compassion for our sick, who reach out in tenderness to listen, to keep vigil, to strengthen, to touch with reverence, and to anoint with precious oil. —Rev. Adwent oznacza „przyjście” (łac. adventus). Dla nas jest to czas liturgicznego przygotowania do przeżycia na nowo narodzin Syna Bożego z łona Maryi „w pełni czasu” (Ga 4,4). Jest to czas prawdziwej nadziei dla wszystkich ludzi, czas nowych perspektyw, nowych wyzwań. Z tym wiąże się jednak potrzeba przemiany, odrzucenia dawnego sposobu życia, radość oczekiwania i gotowość na spotkanie. „Czuwajcie i módlcie się, byście nie popadli w pokuszenie” (Mk 14,38). „Czuwajcie... Duch wprawdzie pełen zapалу, ale ciało słabe” (Mt 26,41). „Czuwajcie i bądźcie mocni w wierze” (1 Kor 16,13). „Czuwajcie wytrwale” (Ef 6,18). „Bądźcie trzeźwi! Czuwajcie!” (1 P 5,8). W powtarzających się wezwaniach wyraża się podstawowe przekonanie: że człowiek, istota historyczna, podlega zmęczeniu, nie może wyrwać się o własnych siłach z przytłaczających go słabości, przywar i grzechów. Każdy chrześcijanin musi być przekonany, że nikt nie może być pewny swego wytrwania i że największe niebezpieczeństwo czyha na tych, którzy mniemają, iż doszli do tego stopnia równowagi, samowystarczalności i że nie potrzebują nikogo. Nowotestamentowe wezwanie do czuwania mówi nam, że szatan stara się pozbawić nas radości wiary i nadziei chwaly życia wiecznego. Zawsze jesteśmy atakowani w tych zasadniczych punktach. Czuwajmy więc wytrwale na modlitwie! W czasie nabożeństw wołajmy z nadzieją: „Spuśćcie nam na ziemskie niwy, Zbawcę z niebios, obłoki”. Ta tęsknota za Zbawicielem, za Jego łaską, tchnie z każdej pieśni adwentowej. ks. Jan Kochel
